MR. HUGHES DEPARTS.

Friends Gather to Attest Their Appreciation of the Famous Tenor Singer's Kindness.

Professor E. Vernon Hughes, the noted tenor soloist, who has been visiting here for the past few weeks was tendered an informal reception at the residence of Mr. and Mrs. Jenkin T. Reese, of 201 North Hyde Park avenue, last evening. The event was in honor of his kind services in singing upon several occasions at the different churches here. The professor formerly resided in West Scranton, and was at that time soloist of the Simpson Bachelor club, which gave such delightful concerts at the Simpson Methodist church.

Several of the invited guests participated in an impromptu programme of exercises, and the evening passed all too quickly. Mr. Hughes rendered several solos and Messrs. Williams, of Wilkes-Barre, also the Misses Cora Griffin and Louisa Jones and Attorney George L. Peck recited. Professor W. W. Jones, Thomas Abrams and John Jones sang a trio. Each number was well received. Mrs. D. B. Thomas acted as accompanist. Later refreshments were served by the genial host and hostess. The professor leaves tomorrow for his home in Brooklyn, N. Y. He sang for the last time here at the First Welsh Baptist church and pleased every one as usual.

MANY FUNERALS.

The funeral of William Webb occurred Saturday morning. The remains were borne from the late residence to St. Patrick's church, where Rev. D. A. Dunne, assistant rector, preached the sermon. There was a large attendance of friends at the service and many accompanied the funeral cortege to the cemetery. The floral tributes were very beautiful. Burial was made in the Hyde Park Catholic cemetery. The pall-bearers were: Patrick Hughes, John McDermott, James Murphy, P. W. Hayes, Richard Kelly and Thomas Moran.

Short services were held yesterday at the residence of Mrs. William Matthews, of 136 Fairview avenue, over her granddaughter, Lily. The little coffin was burdened with many beautiful floral offerings. There were many friends of the family in attendance. The remains were taken to Pittston, where interment was made at the Pittston cemetery.

POLICE AFTER THE TRAMPS.

The gang of tramps who occupy soft places in West Scranton are not having a pleasant time. Almost every day the West Scranton police rounds them up. On Saturday four of the species "hobos" were found lying in an empty freight car on the Bloomsburg switch, near Daniel Scranton street, and picked up by Patrolman Saul and Special Officer Morris. Two of them were wood carvers and exhibited samples of their handiwork. They gave their names as Joseph Daly and Frank Smith, Cincinnati, and Harry and John Toppen, Bethlehem. The latter two are boys. They were fined $1 each, but will probably be sent to jail in default of the fines.

MINOR NEWS NOTES.

Hereafter the first alarm for all central city boxes, or those comprising the First district, will be a still alarm. The siren for this district will only blow on second or third alarms. The order went into effect on Saturday.

In honor of the twenty-first anniversary of the birthday of Frank Cramer, a few friends gathered at the residence of his parents, on North Garfield avenue, last Friday evening. The evening was spent in the enjoyment of dancing and music and later refreshments were served. The guests were: Misses Martha Price, Della Williams, Elsie Driscoll, Mamie Lewis, Etta Duncker, Etta Davis, Jennie Lewis, Mersey Hall, Myrtle Dorsey, Salie Cramer, Willie Howe, Frankie and Elizabeth Williams and Messrs. Harry Driscoll, Willard Beers, Arch R. Jones, Jacob Koch, Alvin Evans, Ira Smith, Sam Chase, Miles Driscoll, M. Penny, Bert Allen, D. Coley and Thomas Woodward.

The members of the Epworth League of the Hampton Street Methodist church held a picnic at Nay Aug park on Saturday. Special cars bore the leaguers and their friends to the park.

Mr. and Mrs. J. Maguire, of Luzerne street, entertained on Friday evening in honor of their guest, Dennis O'Donnell. Those who attended the reception were: Mr. and Mrs. Carroll, Mr. and Mrs. O'Donnell, Mr. and Mrs. McGuffee, the Misses O'Donnell, B. Brady, M. Tierney, J. Carroll, T. Tierney, R. McGuffee, M. Carroll, S. Carroll, T. Tierney, P. Tierney, J. Greeley, J. McGuffee, W. Rafter, J. O'Donnell, J. McPhillips and W. McGuffee.

Miss Elizabeth Thomas, of North Garfield avenue, and John M. Edwards, of West Locust street, will be married tomorrow at the First Welsh Baptist church at noon. Following the ceremony, the couple will tender their relatives a reception at the residence of Miss Thomas' mother.

The Columbia Hose company, or more properly Columbia Chemical company, will hold an important meeting at quarters this evening. A full attendance is desired.

The corner-stone of the new National Greek church of St. John, which is to be built at the corner of Broadway and Fourth street, was laid yesterday morning with solemn and fitting ceremonies. Rev. Father Balogh officiated and preached an impressive sermon. There were six Greek societies in attendance, they having marched to the spot, headed by their respective leaders in full regalia. Three societies came from Fort Forge, one from Taylor, one from Dunmore, and one from Scranton. The stone was blessed and the superstructure will be commenced immediately.

Chief Robling notified the man's relatives in Monroe county, but they had not responded up to early yesterday afternoon, when he was taken to the Hillside Home.

ED. JENNINGS INJURED. Well-Known "Typo" Run Down by a Horse on Washington Avenue. Edward Jennings, employed as an operator in The Tribune composing room, was run down by a horse attached to a light carriage on Washington avenue, near Fifth street, yesterday afternoon and painfully injured.

A deep gash was cut in his forehead by coming in contact with the pavement and he was unconscious for some time. Dr. Saltry was hurriedly brought to the scene by the man who had caused the accident, and after a brief examination he gave out that the injury was only superficial.

OBITUARY. Peter Keegan died last Friday evening at his home on Oak street. The deceased was well advanced in years and has been a resident of this city for many years. He is survived by a wife and four grown-up children, namely: Katie, Patrick, Charles and John. The funeral will be held at his home, at 12 o'clock, and the remains will be taken to the Holy Rosary church, at which place a high mass of requiem will be celebrated. Interment will be made in the Dunmore Catholic cemetery.

Eugene, the infant child of Mr. and Mrs. John F. Vanston, of 125 West Locust street, died yesterday at the home of the parents. The funeral will be held from the residence of the mother, at 2 p. m. Interment at the Washburn street cemetery.

PEACE PROBABLE IN URUGUAY. New Ministry Takes the Place of the One Dismissed by the President. Montevideo, Aug. 29.—It is stated that a peace will probably be concluded between the government and the revolutionists in a short time. Important economies have been promised by the government.

A new ministry has been formed to take the place of that dismissed by Senor Jose Cuestas, president of the senate, who assumed the presidency of the republic of Uruguay interim after the assassination of President Borda. The new cabinet is as follows: Minister of War—General Perez (reappointed). Minister of Finance—Senor Campostegui. Minister of Foreign Affairs—Senor Ferrer. Minister of the Interior—Senor Macasch. Minister of Agriculture—Senor Parela. The new ministry is generally favorably received.

MISSIONS DENOUNCED BY A TURK. Says the Armenian Revolutionists Are Pupils of American Schools. Berlin, Aug. 29.—The Lokal Anzeiger prints an interview with Mehmed Nouri Bey, Turkish foreign office at Constantinople, in which he is quoted as saying: "The Armenian revolutionists in Turkey are all pupils and disciples of the American mission schools at Marsovan, Bitlis, Erzeroum and Van. The activity of these schools is the curse of Turkey and Armenia alike."

GREEN RIDGE. Mrs. Otto Conrad and sister, Miss Jennie Palmer, returned Saturday from Lake Ariel, where they spent last week. Grant Smith, who was severely injured while at work in the Green Ridge lumber yard several weeks ago, is again well to be around.

E. E. Teal and family, of Green Ridge street, who have been spending the summer at their cottage at Elmhurst, have returned home.

Ira Stevens, of New York street, spent Sunday at Prompton, N. J., with Mrs. L. D. Coleman and son, Clyde, who have returned to their home on Delaware street, after spending the past six weeks in Connecticut.

Mr. and Mrs. Merritt Gardner, of Dickson avenue, are visiting relatives in Factoryville, where they attended the Gardner union last week.

DUNMORE.

Mr. and Mrs. ... For have been called upon to mourn the loss of another of their children. On August 4 their little son died from the effects of burns which he received several days previous.

Yesterday at 12 o'clock their 8-year-old daughter, Mildred, died. She had been sick but a few days. The funeral will occur Thursday afternoon at 2 p. m. Interment will be made at Hawley.

Miss Elsie Powell, of Blakely street, was the guest of Oliphant friends Saturday.

Mr. and Mrs. John Hallstone, of Moosic, were the guests of Mr. and Mrs. Robert Burdick, of Blakely street, yesterday.

Mrs. Thomas Young, of Drinker street, is visiting Lake Winola friends this week. Taylor's dancing class will open for the season in Old Fellows' hall Friday night, September 5.

Harry Muehler, of Syracuse, N. Y., is the guest of friends in town this week. Saturday afternoon while driving along Penn avenue an axle broke in Harry Winters' carriage, frightening the horse and starting down the avenue at a very lively rate. After getting about a block he collided with a wagon, overturning the buggy. Mr. Winters was thrown upon his head and received serious injuries. The horse ran for several blocks when he was captured. Save for a few scratches the horse was uninjured, but the buggy was completely wrecked.

Miss Annie Branning, of Fifth street, returned Saturday from a visit with Mrs. Charles Frier.

Miss Estelle Woodward, of Electric avenue, leaves this morning for Stroudsburg, where she enters the normal school at that place.

MINOOKA.

John Coyne, of Stafford street, was injured about the head at the Taylor mines Saturday by a fall of top coal. His injuries are not of a serious nature.

The "Lexov" will be resumed during the coming week.

F. Higgins spent Sunday with friends at Lake Winola.

T. F. and P. J. Coyne returned Saturday from Atlantic City, where they spent the past week.

Samuel J. Coyne and M. McDonnell will leave today for Reading to attend the state Democratic convention. They will represent the Democrats of the Third congressional district.

M. J. O'Neill, the crack twirler of the home team, handled the sphere for the Olympic "brown" yesterday in their game with the Eucas.

RELATIVE OF THE GOULDS.

He Said He Was and Then Tried to Kill Himself. For several days a man, apparently well mentally, has been haunting South Scranton. The fellow, William M. Wildrick, of Hackett's, Monroe county, alleged that he was a nephew of the late Jay Gould.

On Friday Wildrick tried to jump into the Meadow Brook shaft, but was prevented by the employees. On Saturday word was received at police headquarters that an inmate had escaped from Danville and was at large in South Scranton. The authorities were communicated with at Danville and it was ascertained that William Wildrick had been discharged as cured last December. Meanwhile word was sent to the South Scranton police station, and the wandering man was found by Patrolman Schmitz.

Chief Robling notified the man's relatives in Monroe county, but they had not responded up to early yesterday afternoon, when he was taken to the Hillside Home.

ED. JENNINGS INJURED. Well-Known "Typo" Run Down by a Horse on Washington Avenue. Edward Jennings, employed as an operator in The Tribune composing room, was run down by a horse attached to a light carriage on Washington avenue, near Fifth street, yesterday afternoon and painfully injured.

FAMOUS DENTIST'S FORTUNE.

Dr. Evans Has Made $35,000,000 Filling Crowns Heads of Europe. New York, Aug. 29.—Dr. Thomas W. Evans, the famous American dentist, who for the past forty years has been the dental operator in Paris of most of the crowned heads of Europe and other celebrities, returned to this country today on the French liner La Champagne from Havre. He came over with the body of his wife, which is to be interred in Woodlands cemetery, Philadelphia. Dr. Evans is now 73 years of age, and is said to be worth $35,000,000. About five millions of this property is in New York city real estate, the remainder in Paris and elsewhere. This fortune has been gathered since Dr. Evans first went to Paris from Philadelphia in the forties. During the empire of Napoleon III his fame as dentist and decorator was innumerable, and it was in his carriage that the Empress Eugenie escaped from Paris after the battle of Sedan.

The wife of Dr. Evans died on June 17 last at their residence in Paris. The doctor was accompanied on the voyage to Dr. Edward Crane, his junior partner. There were a number of his relatives on the dock to meet Dr. Evans. Dr. Evans said he did not know how long he would remain in this country, but he will return to his home in Paris. He left for Philadelphia immediately. He will probably stay at the old family homestead at 411 Spruce street.

MEETING OF CRETE'S ASSEMBLY.

A Big Majority Favors the Scheme of Autonomy. Candia, Crete, Aug. 28.—A stormy scene occurred in the Cretan assembly when that body met today to consider the question of the acceptance of the scheme of autonomy for the island. Sixty members voted in favor of the immediate adoption of the scheme, and twelve opposed it.

When the result of the voting was made known the delegates who opposed the scheme, including the president of the assembly, withdrew from the chamber. A unanimous demand was made that the Turkish troops withdraw from Thessaly at once.
